The Scholarship Program of the Lee County Fair & Charcoal Challenge BBQ Cook-Off

Lee County Youth Fair Board is made up of 32 Juniors and Seniors from Dime Box, Giddings & Lexington High Schools who have been assessed, evaluated, scored, and interviewed.

These students commit two years of selling season passes, fair grounds set-up and clean up, and other community outreach for the Lee County Fair to earn their scholarship.

Season passes are only available from a Youth Fair Board member for $25. This all access pass is good for Friday and Saturday at the Fair. The Midway, Texas Country Music, Dance, Arts & Crafts, Games and Attractions including the BBQ Cook-Off are included. Only the Carnival is a separate fee.

Contact a Youth Fair Board member today to purchase your Season Pass!

MELLO HAY FARMS

Serving Texans' Hay Needs Since 1995

Horse Quality
Coastal Hay

We strive to harvest our hay every 32 days with 400lbs. of fertilizer to the acre, every cutting to keep the quality high. Tedding the hay allows faster drying to keep more protein rich leaves intact.

State of the art pivot system allows us to keep the quality high, with efficient use of natural resources. We have 1,000 acres of Coastal Bermuda... we farm year round. When you need hay, we have it. We are capable of storing 40,000 bales in 4 weatherproof storage facilities.

★THE LEE COUNTY YOUTH FAIR BOARD★ SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

The Lee County Fair Association, Inc. awards scholarships annually to qualifying high school seniors who are members of the Youth Fair Board.

Members of the Youth Fair Board are selected as Juniors and serve for two years, assisting with all aspects of the event. Responsibilities include: assisting with planning and implementation of the fair activities; providing input from the youth, and encouraging participation from Lee County youth.

The Youth Fair Board members are selected from all three Lee County school districts. Upon completion of a two year term, they may qualify to receive scholarships ranging from $500-$2500. Members of the Youth Fair Board apply for appointment and are selected based upon leadership qualities and community involvement as well as academic and other school accomplishments.

The mission of the Lee County Fair Association, inc. is to support the youth of Lee County: rewarding their efforts, and building leadership for the future of Lee County through participation in this scholarship program. As of 2016, over $225,000 has been awarded to the qualifying seniors through this worthwhile program. Youth Fair Board Members are selling discounted Season Pass tickets for $25 each.
